

California Association of Family and Consumer Sciences San Diego District Scholarships

Henry R. Hague, J.D. Scholarship

Margaret R. Hollenbeck Scholarship

Ellen Ferguson Snyder Scholarship

The California Association of Family and Consumer Sciences - San Diego District is part of the national organization the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences.

The San Diego District has been awarding scholarships since 1947 to provide financial assistance to graduating high school seniors, current college students and graduate students studying in Home Economics related fields.

The California Association of Family and Consumer Sciences – San Diego District Scholarships are open to:

- Graduating high school seniors, current college students or graduate students majoring in Culinary Arts; Dietetics; Nutrition; Hospitality and Tourism; Human, Child and Family Development; Apparel Services; Fashion Design; Textile Design; Interior Design; Consumer Economics or Family and Consumer Science Education.
- Plan to or are currently attending an accredited four-year university, community college or licensed career/technical school in the United States (undergraduate recipients must be enrolled full-time (12 units per semester or 9 per quarter); graduate students may be enrolled full-time or part-time with awards allocated appropriately based upon enrollment units.
- Have a minimum 2.50 GPA on a 4.0 scale
- California residents, though priority will be given to applicants from San Diego County

Additional materials: Letter of recommendation on official letterhead from an instructor or other professional indicating your interest in pursuing a career in one of above listed fields.

Past recipients may re-apply and will compete with all other applicants.

This scholarship may be used for tuition, fees, books, room & board and other educational expenses.

Average number of scholarships: TBA

Average amount of each scholarship: TBA