

CA-AFCS Members:

The Leadership Workshops were held on October 1 and 2, 2021 and were attended by Nancy Rabolt and Gus Vouchilas. Approximately 60 AAFCS members from across the United States were in attendance. The topics covered were timely and brought with them very spirited conversations. Data from the national survey on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) were presented by past-president Dr. Jacqueline Holland and Lori Myers from AAFCS. Participants engaged in break out rooms to discuss ways in which each of the affiliates can engage their members in DEI in many different and meaningful ways. Current ‘Young Professionals’ were highlighted in a presentation given by Nate Wambold, Chair, American Society of Association Executives (ASAE), Young Professionals Advisory Committee—and discussion ensued which highlighted the need to seek out young members who will become the future body of AAFCS and its affiliates. Legal advice and information is always helpful and Steven P. Benson, Partner, Whiteford Taylor & Preston, did an excellent job of letting affiliates know the do’s and don’ts as they relate to governance. Past president, Liz Self-Mullens gave a thorough presentation highlighting AAFCS, its make-up, its alliances with other organizations, and everything it has to offer members and constituents. It was a truly informative session and enjoyed by all. The Leadership Workshop recordings are available in the online libraries found at www.aafcs.org.

Wishing you a happy fall season,

At the Leadership Workshops on October 1st & 2, affiliate presidents from Georgia, Pennsylvania, and our own California were called upon to discuss successes they have experienced. The session began with a photo that the presidents selected that was representative of their state organization. As suggested by members of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee of CA-AFCS, a photo of a beautiful ‘tree’ was selected.

- ◇ The tree, as a ‘living thing’, was stated as ‘representative of our organization as a living organism with each limb being the special talent each of us brings
- ◇ The tree illustrates the connection that ‘each of us has to the trunk which is the synthesis of our state’ and ‘the body of our work and contributions’
- ◇ Our ‘FCS roots’ are deep; they ground us and keep us focused
- ◇ Like a tree, we continue to ‘grow’ both personally and as an organization—as leaves fall, new ones grow
- ◇ Our goal is to bring fruit or growth continually and it comes in our service to others

We are so thankful for each of you.

2022 CA-AFCS CONFERENCE

March 25-26, 2022

at the Hilton San Diego Mission Valley
901 Camino Rio South, San Diego

It will be In Person!! Conference planning is underway for our 2022 conference. See your colleagues in person again and meet FCS secondary teachers in your district. We will be pairing with FCSTAC and FCS Leadership & Management for three sessions: Posters, District Networking, and a General Session with an exciting industry panel. Our Friday evening reception will be March 25 at 5:00-7:00pm, and Saturday March 26 will be a full day of oral and poster presentations.

We're happy to announce that our AAFCS President, Robert Van Dyke, CFCS, will attend the conference and be part of our group.

Encourage student attendance. We hope to have lots of students at the conference to network with secondary teachers and members. Encourage them to submit a poster adding this to their resume. We are asking for donations from members, districts, and others to support the registration fee for students to attend the conference. Student registration is set at $10, but we need an additional $90 per student to pay for Saturday expenses. Some are supporting individual students, others are giving to the student fund for students throughout California. Please consider donating which you can add to the registration fee or contact Dolores Robles at dolores.robles@csulb.edu.

Be part of the program by submitting proposals for poster or oral presentations and encouraging student poster proposals.

2022 Call for Proposals

- ◇ Professionals and Graduate Students, we invite you to submit proposals to present a poster, creative project, or give a 20-minute oral presentation for the conference on Saturday March 26. See directions on the Call for Proposals.
